PART 1 – A THRU G – 99 SLIDES

A functional family is;
a family that provides the
emotional coping mechanisms and tools necessary for the children of that family, to be able to deal with life's challenges and obstacles in healthy ways.

A Moment of Common Sense America

You can't make a gateway drug like marijuana more accessible then complain that you have a growing hard drug problem like opiates and heroin.

Less than 2% of opiate addicts start with an opiate. We aren't shocked when a beer drinker starts wanting hard liquor.

Addiction is about altering moods; it is about the control of mood.

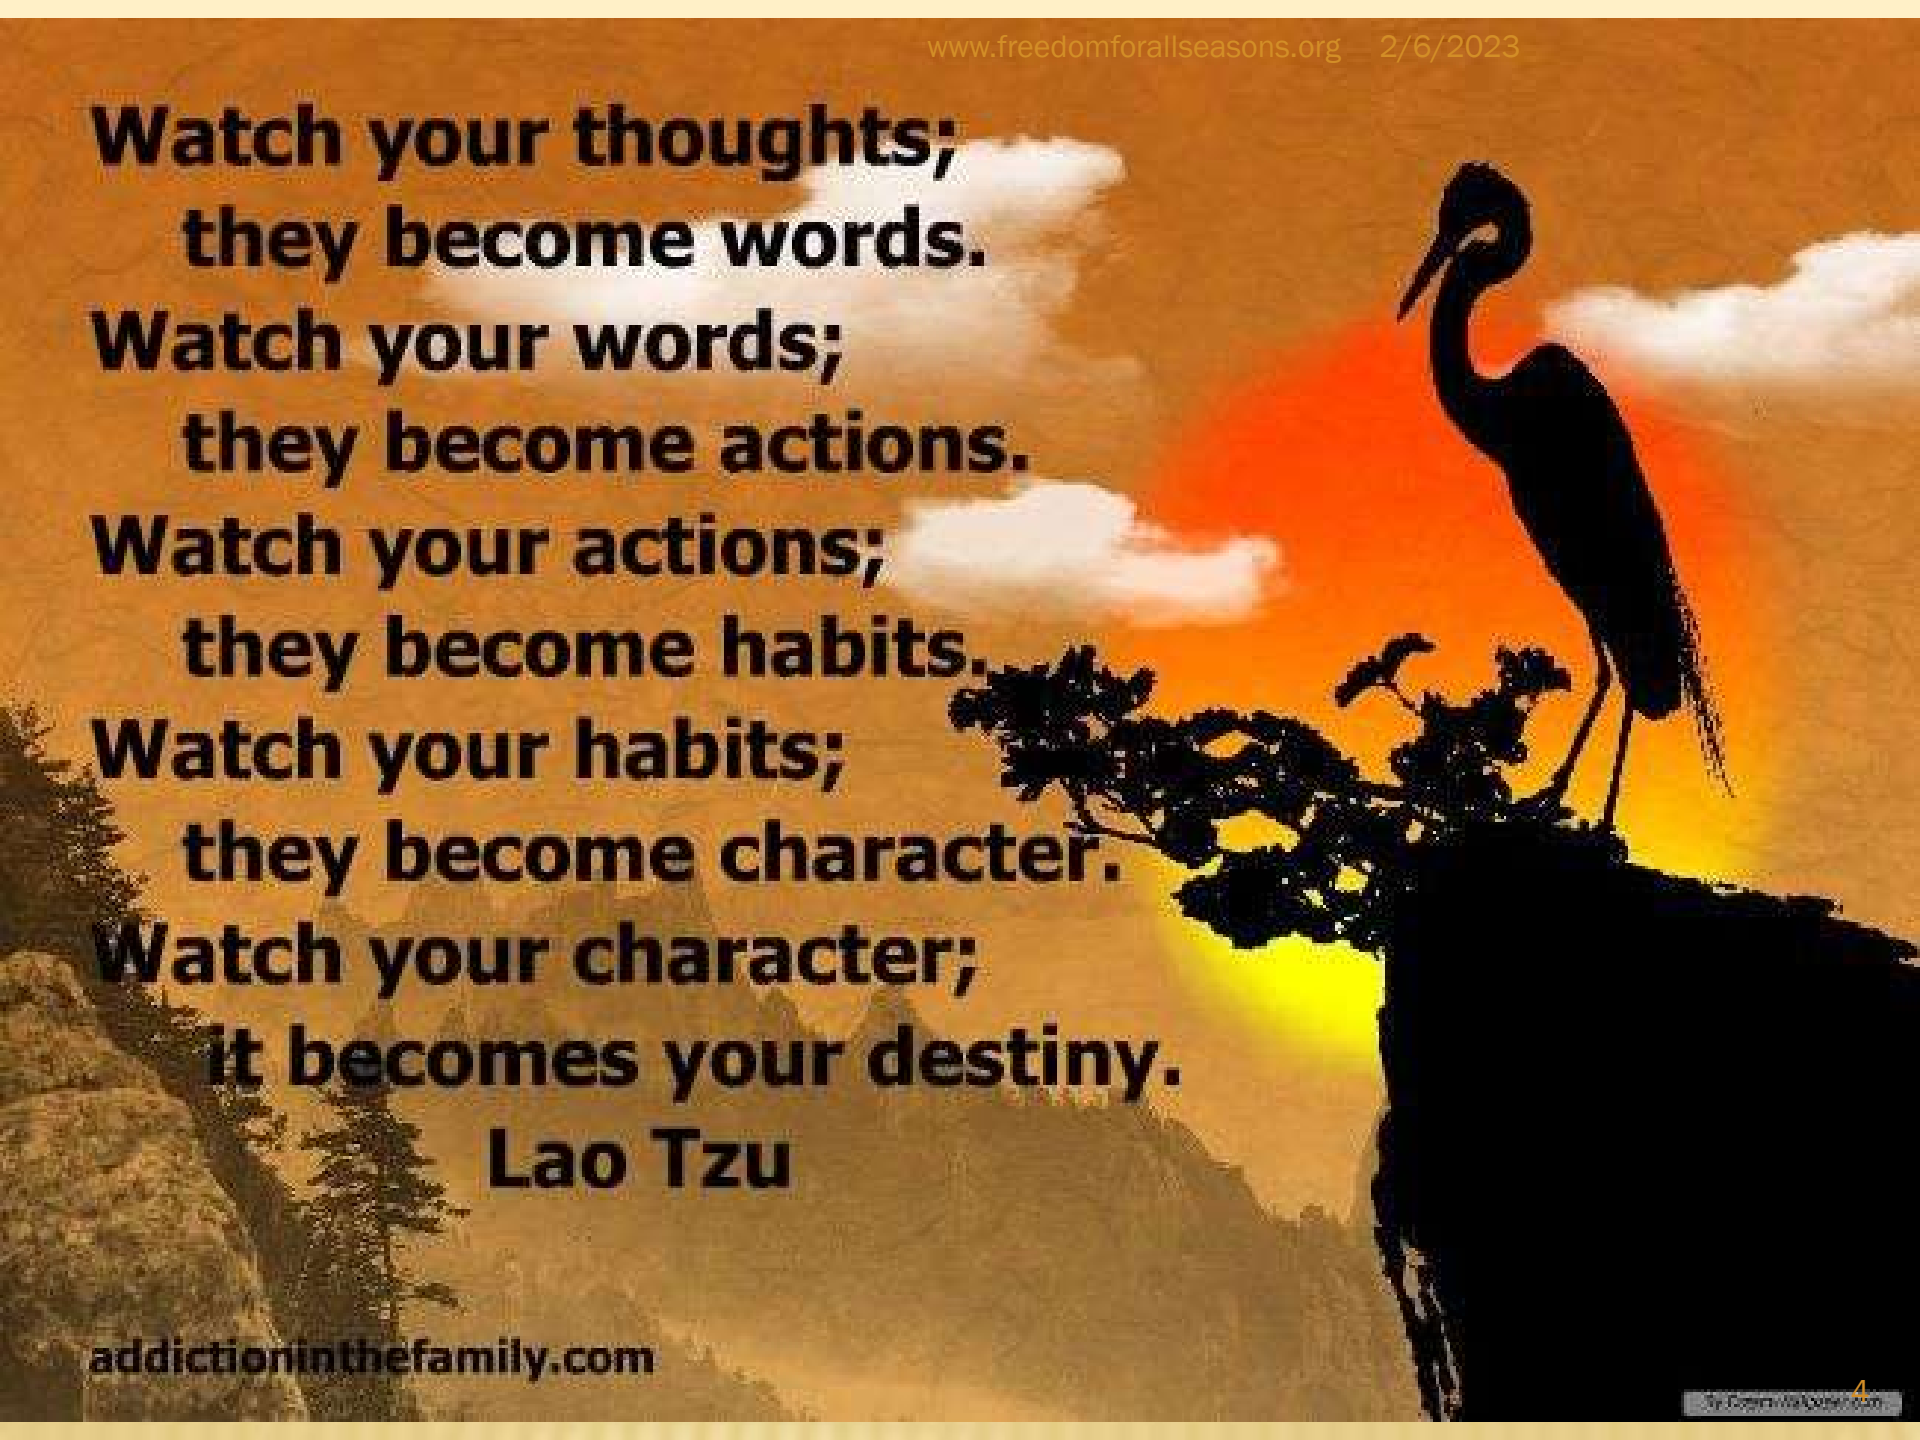

Once a person gets in the habit of altering their mood tolerance develops, tolerance requires more of that chemical and when that chemical fails to change mood it requires a stronger chemical.

Wise Up!

AMERICA

Apparently you illegal aliens have a major "sense of entitlement."

How else could you think you are entitled to be here without permission.

If you want to be here you will have to stop being so self centered and learn how to put our country and the laws that make it a country first.

You can prove just how much you value it by leaving on your own and coming back in the right way.

That's what an honorable, law abiding AMERICAN would do.

Could it be after 8 years of mostly dead ends there has been a huge unearthing.
Could it be something that will change the world as we know it, alter history?

Searchers have found 188,243 Biden Ballots, 0 Trump.
Archeologists are working hard to determine their authenticity. Could it be that there were 42,020 times more Biden votes than island residents? That a lesser evolved society recently inhabited the island as recent as November 3, 2020. Could they have moved to Philadelphia? Detroit? The AZ/NV desert even?

AS SOON AS YOU'RE BORN YOU ARE GIVEN A NAME, A RELIGION, A NATIONALITY AND A RACE. YOU SPEND THE REST OF YOUR LIFE DEFENDING A FICTIONAL IDENTITY.

When my ancestors came to the US they had to learn English and were excited to do so; it helped make them American.

Back then it was 10x harder than it is now because there wasn't an Information Super Highway, a Rosetta Stone or an app for that!

People came here to be Uniquely American not anything else!

Learn the language! Assimilate! Share cultures!

Stay if it sounds good, leave if it don't.

This is America!!

Be an American and appreciate it or be somewhere else!

Could it be that the reason we have so many big problems in the big cities of the world, is because living in the big cities of the world, may be a little too unnatural for the human animal.

Perhaps we aren't as evolved as we like to "think" we are.

Big City Liberals

Snap, Chat, Tweet, Gram, Talk, and Meme post about LOVE & HARMONY and how people aren't being treated right when they're schmoozing in their little echo chambers.

Then, when no one is looking, they get in their cars, race through family neighborhoods on the phone, call people names in the street, flip others off, shout racial epitaphs and use their cars as weapons until they get home.

Once home they then neglect and mistreat their partners and children with ugly names they wouldn't call a stranger. When they get hateful enough they call their secret lovers and complain about what everyone else is doing wrong.

Put simply!

Liberals are a bunch of phonies overcompensating for their own defects of character. They have to put conservatives down to make themselves seem less deplorable.

Cult-ural Bullied

The political correct agenda has given birth to a group of people I call "cultural bullies." "Cult-ural Bullies" are the people who threaten you with ruin if you don't comply with their ideological designs.

They are the people who create a cost for your supposed free speech...

They annoy you with triviality in order to frustrate you into silence.

Your silence and subsequent withdrawal from the debate then becomes your consent to their lunacies.

Grace, getting what we need
when we don't expect it or deserve it.

Grace is often perceived as a gift from the heavens, a route to our better destinies, in spite of our efforts to avoid it, complicate it, or control it! It is getting what we need, how we need it, when we don't even know it!

If someone was abusive would you want to know or not know?

Conservative

Not a Republican but even less of a Democrat. The opposite of a progressive. Believes in small government and endowed human rights given to them by a Higher Power. Self-reliant, free market supporter who is willing to defend what s/he loves.

Not swayed by government bribes or unrealistic ideological promises. Believes the federal government has overstepped its reach. Doesn't believe in laws being made by a few unelected people on the Supreme Court. Believes the government needs to listen to the voice of the people and not the other way around. Supports the First and Second Amendments.

Did you know that prior to the Civil Rights movement nearly all the governors of the Southern States were Democrats? During its most racist days the Dems ruled?

Here is a list of who ran those states from the Executive Offices as Governors

Mississippi from 1871-1992 all Democrats, 0 Republicans

Louisiana from 1877-1980 all Democrats, 0 Republicans

Georgia from 1872-2003 all Democrats, 0 Republicans

Alabama from 1874-1987 all Democrats, 0 Republicans

Arkansas from 1874-1981 all were Democrats except 1

When did equality really begin?

Under Republicans!

REAL rights for Southern Blacks actually ushered in Republican management.

My life has purpose, I accept life as it is, The present is a gift, I recreate myself daily, It's okay to enjoy myself, I am creating the life I love, I cherish every moment of the day, Today is my chance to be healthy, I'm calm and centred, now and always, I find my path following my intuition, I am allowed to stop and appreciate the quiet, My life is full of amazingly wonderful surprises, I am filled with energy to do all the daily activities in my life, I am right here, Each moment shines on me, I stand in complete satisfaction, I embrace life in its absolute fullness, I have all that I need, This moment exists only if I reach out and take hold of it, I am worthy and deserve good things.

Today I choose to do what I can.... and I can do anything,

Anything that makes you feel something positive has addictive potential.

Video games, scuba diving, skydiving, exercise, alcohol, weed, gambling and yeah, sex. Anything that provides gratification conditions the brain to return to that "thing/behavior" for more.

The more times you go back, the more addicted you can become.

This is emotional dependence, this is addiction and it's not only hard to quit, it can destroy your life.

Ideology Gets an Epic Fail

One possible reason for the unrest on college campuses is that the ideology of the old guard academic elite is failing: Its leaders' credibility in ruin. Ideals that have been professed for years are no longer standing the tests of time and reality.

This results in halfwits given half the picture, demanding these ideologies and notions be made real as promised. Angry customers who have been duped into voting for implausibilities.

Threatening your relationship is not an attempt to find a solution to a problem.

Threatening the relationship is a fear tactic. It is used to manipulate a partner based on their fear of being alone. It is emotional warfare. Holding hostage some one's value for us, using it against them to get out way, is never fair fighting. Its net result is to lessen our value to them and that is usually the opposite of what we are fighting for.

Today I Participate in the Grace that is Forgiveness.

I am willing and able to forgive. I can move on. I release myself from my anger and let the past go. I do not need the person who hurt me to suffer for me to be Healed. The past is just that, Over! The past is forgiven: I am healed. I let go of my hurt and anger towards you. I allow the divine light of love to guide my heart and my mind. I am alive today, I live in today, not in the hurt of yesterday. I am more whole because I took back the part of me that was injured. My memory is healed and thus the resentment is gone. Forgiveness is a gift I give to myself over and over again. Forgiveness is easier to forgive in advance: The next time I am injured I will not take the act personal, I will remember that Hurt People Hurt People and that whole people make others feel the same way. I give the gift of forgiveness to myself, not to the offender.

QUOTE OF THE DAY:

"DON'T CLING TO A MISTAKE JUST BECAUSE YOU SPENT A LOT OF TIME MAKING IT."

- UNKNOWN

You can try to control things if you want to....
But I promise you that as you mature,
that one day, you will want something
Greater than yourself to take over:
You don't have to wait!

One day you'll stop seeking ways to feel better
and you'll start
seeking ways
to be better.

Until that day,
it's groundhog day,
over and over again.

Real Journalist report news, they report on what occurred at a point in time and they interview people who witnessed it.

Propagandists tell stories, add color, paint pictures, give opinions and mold perspective.

Press credentials should be given to Journalists — and they should be taken away from propagandists.
