Check out Tom DeWeese's two urgent letters scanned in above and act to stop these takings.

"Americans today must obey thirty times as many laws as their great-grandfathers had to obey at the turn of the century. Federal agencies publish an average of over 200 pages of new rulings, regulations and proposals in the Federal Register each business day....But the effort to improve society by the endless multiplication of penalties, prohibitions, and prison sentences is a dismal failure." Lost Rights, James Bovard

Over 80% of the legislation is unconstitutional by one source I have read. Also wrap your mind around the fact that ALL the uSA and state CONstitutions are fraudulent and not constitutions of Constitutional Republics at all, but are written by politicians and lawyers more for municipal corporation by laws.
